Memo No. 5783 – UDMA-22012(14)/11/2022

Date : 01.12.2022

ORDER

KMDA was the custodian for the maintenance of the E.M Bypass connecting the northern and southern part of the city and starts from northern hub Ultadanga to Garia in the South. The road length is 15.6 Km which runs along the eastern ring of the city. After careful consideration it has been decided that the maintenance of the road alongwith the drainage be handed over from KMDA to KMC with the following scope of activities.

- (1) The defects in carriageway would be maintained and restored by KMC henceforth.
- (2) The existing carriageway alongwith the surface and underground drainage would be maintained by KMC. The conservancy in and around the Eastern Bypass would also be maintained by KMC.
- (3) Subject to clearance from KMDA, KMC would issue NoC to all utility and service providers. The cost of road restoration from the charges to be levied is to be paid to KMC by all utility and service providers.
- (4) The right of collecting revenues from the advertisement displays will remain with KMDA.
- (5) All the structures, as the new or old Bridges, Culverts, FoBs etc. will be under the custody of KMDA.
- (6) All development activities along the road except for the Bridges, Culverts, FoBs etc. will be taken up by KMC.
- (7) KMC would remain custodian for illumination of the Bypass.
- (8) The green verge along the E.M. Bypass to be maintained by KMC.

This order is issued in the interest of public service.
